Sage Software Announces Chairman's Club 2007

Irvine, Ca. – January 25, 2008 – Sage Software announced today its Chairman's Club members, representing the elite of the Sage Software Business Partner community. Members were determined based on their performance during the company's 2007 fiscal year, which ran from October 1, 2006 to September 30, 2007.

Chairman's Club membership is earned by Sage Software Business Partners that develop an exceptional level of new business with Sage Software through defined sales and marketing programs, making these the top-selling Sage Software Business Partners in North America. Chairman's Club members receive a variety of marketing benefits and attend an annual business retreat with Sage Software executives to discuss industry issues and business strategy.

"Chairman's Club members represent some of our most successful business partners in North America, helping small and mid-sized businesses achieve great results with Sage Software solutions," said Nina Smith, Sage Software president, Business Management Division. "Their hard work and dedication over the past year to achieving our mutual success has earned them this prestigious honor." Added Doug Meyer, Sage Software president, Industry & Specialized Solutions Division, "Like Sage Software, these partners are very customer-focused, and strive to always keep their customers and their continued satisfaction in mind by implementing and maintaining exceptional business management programs for them."
