Accordant Company Welcomes
Leveraged Resources

Whippany, New Jersey - April 1, 2011 - Leading Sage Software business partner, Accordant Company, LLC is pleased to announce that effective April 1, Accordant has acquired Sage business partner Leveraged Resources based in Beverly Hills, Michigan.

Leveraged Resources has served the construction and real estate market for over 10 years and has earned Sage recognition for high client satisfaction. Leveraged Resources, led by industry veterans Vic Marshall and Jim Coen, gained a well-deserved reputation for exceptional customer service and support for Sage Master Builder and Sage Timberline Office Products. "Our clients will be well-served by an organization that has a deep commitment to outstanding service and brings to each client engagement a breadth of industry expertise, and resources unparalleled in our business," said Vic Marshall.

"The Leveraged Resources team brings a wealth of knowledge to our firm," said Bob Sandelands of Accordant. "We welcome the Leveraged Resources clients and are confident that our combined companies will continue to be the preeminent choice for contractors and real estate firms of all types."

The resulting organization will be one of the nation's largest full service construction and real estate technology consulting firms with more than 4,000 clients and 50 dedicated client service professionals. Accordant is one of the few Sage Software partners consistently named to Sage's prestigious Top Five North America, President's Circle and Chairman's Club, and serves on its Channel Partner and Product Advisory Councils. Accordant has been named to the 2009 & 2010 Accounting Today Magazine's "VAR 100 – Top Resellers," an annual list of the industry's top firms.
