Accordant Company Welcomes Qualitech of Montgomery County, Inc.

Whippany, New Jersey - April 28, 2010 - Leading Sage Software business partner, Accordant Company, LLC is pleased to announce that effective April 28, Accordant has acquired Sage business partner Qualitech of Montgomery County, Inc. based in Ambler, Pennsylvania. The acquisition will further strengthen Accordant's existing sales and professional services practice in Pennsylvania.

Qualitech has served the construction and real estate market since 1984 and earned Sage recognition for high client satisfaction. Qualitech, led by industry veterans Cheryl Fogerty and Rob Meehl, gained a well-deserved reputation for exceptional customer service and support for Sage Timberline Office. "Our clients will be well-served by an organization that understands their business challenges and has the expertise and resources to provide innovative and cost effective solutions," said Cheryl Fogerty.

"The Qualitech team has a great track record in our industry and brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to our firm," said Bob Sandelands of Accordant. "We welcome the Qualitech clients and look forward to providing the resources and attention required to meet all of their business objectives."

The resulting organization will be one of the nation's largest full service construction and real estate technology consulting firms with more than 3,300 clients and 28 dedicated client service professionals. Accordant is one of the few Sage Software partners consistently named to Sage's prestigious President's Circle and Chairman's Club, and serves on its Business Partner and Product Advisory Councils. Accordant has been named to the 2008 & 2009 Accounting Technology Magazine's "100 Technology Pacesetters," an annual list of the industry's top firms.
