Construction Management

“Workforce Go has been a great time saver for our company. The level of control and permission setting has been a big improvement from our old solution. The integration with Acumatica is simple yet effective. There was a learning curve as you have with any solution but overall it has been simple enough. The initial setup did take some time but was well done. Customer service has been quick and effective. The pricing is a little higher than I would like, but you do get what you pay for.”

—Ben Wachter, Levi’s Building Components

Connect Your Processes & Empower Your People
